Attendance

Rosewood College expects students to make full use of their educational opportunities by regular class attendance and to assume the academic risks incurred by absences. We are committed to ensure that standards of practice are achieved at every level of the classroom.

Instructors may set such standards of attendance as they deem necessary for the satisfactory conduct of their courses.

Absences lasting for more than two consecutive days must be accompanied by a valid reason with the proper documentation. A reasonable excuse for an absence must describe circumstances requiring the student's absence (e.g. medical, family emergency, etc.).

Students who fail to meet these standards may be warned by the instructor and eventually receive a Professional Performance Advisory notice, the purpose of this written notice is to clearly communicate and identify the concerns that have become evident.

Students who miss five days without authorization will be withdrawn from the College.

Clinical/Practicum

A student placement is an unpaid education experience. This allow the student to put classroom theory into practice to gain the valuable skills that will support them later in their careers.

Students are expected to attend placements arranged by the College to meet the requirement to complete their program.

Students who miss five days without authorization will be withdrawn from the College.

Credentials

Refers to a certificate, diploma, transcript approved by a post-secondary College. The certificate, diploma and/or transcript is awarded to graduates upon successful completing the program, it is valid only when the seal is affixed by the Registrar's Office. All fees are to be paid in full to receive your credentials.

Graduation

Graduation marks a student's successful completion of their prescribed program of study.

Ensuring that Rosewood College students have met a minimum standard of academic achievement by acknowledging the quality of our programs and the preparation of our students to enter the workplace.

Complaint and Dispute Resolution

Rosewood College provides an opportunity for students to resolve disputes of a serious nature in a fair, reasonable and equitable manner.

When a concern arises, the student should first attempt to approach the instructor or other authorized individual to discuss the area of concern. If the concern(s) cannot be resolved verbally, the student is required to submit the complaint in writing to the President of Rosewood College.

Upon review of the complaints and any other relevant information the President will arrange to meet with the student to discuss the concern as soon as possible and within five school days of receiving the student's written complaint.

Following the meeting with the student, the President will conduct whatever enquiries and/or investigations are necessary and provide a written response to the student that includes reasons for the determination on the complaint.

If the student is not satisfied with the outcome, they can escalate their complaint to the Private Vocational Training office for further handling.

Harassment and Discrimination

Rosewood College has a zero-tolerance policy regarding harassment and /or discrimination of any form.

We are committed to providing a collegial environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Each student has the right to study in a professional atmosphere which promotes equal opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices.
